

Children of Bellevue

Healthcare Issues Forum

Thursday, February 15, 6:30-8pm

Borough of Manhattan Community College
Fiterman Hall, Conference Room #1302 (use Elevator #9)
245 Greenwich St, New York, NY 10007

Purchase Tickets

Free tickets for AHCJ members. Use Promo Code: AHCJ

Join us for an important panel discussion about healthcare misinformation.

Hear from the following panelists:

- Sony Salzman, Coordinating Producer, ABC Medical Unit
- Dr. Lisa H. Rose, Professor of Human Services and Social Work, Borough of Manhattan Community College

A brief reception with light refreshments will follow the panel portion of the event

Share this invitation with a friend!

Organized by Children of Bellevue and The Association of Healthcare Journalists

Children of Bellevue makes healthcare equitable and accessible for New York City's children by developing, funding and initiating pediatric programs at Bellevue Hospital.

The Association of Healthcare Journalists is dedicated to advancing public understanding of health care issues. Its mission is to improve the quality, accuracy and visibility of health care reporting, writing and editing.